

In-Kind Donation Form

An In-Kind Donation is the following:

- A donated auction item.
- Donated goods or tangible materials (supplies, food, and equipment).
- Contributed professional services (complete for all contributed services that would have been paid for if not donated. Examples are attorney's fees, entertainers, electricians, plumbers, and doctors. Volunteer services are NOT considered in-kind contributions).
- Donated facilities (Complete if the use of the facility normally would have required a fee for use. Conference rooms are not applicable unless they are rental facilities).
